Naples, July 6, N. S.

GREAT Pains are taken by this Government to raiſe Troops; to which End, Men out of every Family are inliſted forcibly for the King's Service, which occaſions a general Diſſatisfaction amongſt the People. On the 28th paſt two of the King's Row Boats returned to Naples from Port Ercole, whither they had eſcorted ſeveral Tranſport Veſſels with Proviſions, Ammunition and Stores for the Spaniſh and Neapolitan Troops. On the 30th they ſailed again to the Preſidii, conducting Tents, &c. for the Troops that are to march thence by Land to join the Army in the State of Genoa. The ſame Day the Prince of Roccella, Caraffa, after two Months Confinement in the Caſtle of the Iſland of Iſchia, was by the King's Orders ſet at Liberty. On the 29th the Marquis of Monte Pagano, Gaeta, was order'd into Arreſt in the Caſtle Nuovo, for Misbehaviour to the Magiſtrates of the City, when aſſembled. On the the 30th the Queen was let Blood by way of Precaution, being entred into the 5th Month of her Pregnancy. On the 3d the Prince of Palagonia, Maggiordomo Maggiore to the Queen, was honour'd with the Title of Grandee of Spain of the Firſt Rank, conferred upon him by the King of Spain.

Rome, July 10. On the 4th Funeral Obſequies were made at the Jeſuits Church for the late Emperor; at which many Cardinals, Prelates, &c. were preſent. On the 6th M. Ruffo, General of the Malteſe Gallies, ſet out hence for Civita Vecchia, in order to proceed on a Cruize.

Florence, July 13. On the 10th Marquis Silva, the Spaniſh and Neapolitan Conſul at Leghorn, who regulated with the Regency the Paſſage of the Spaniſh and Neapolitan Troops from Orbitello through Tuſcany, for the Genoeſe State, ſet out from Florence to Siena, to attend their March, which the firſt Diviſion is to begin on the 16th Inſtant.

Journal from the Auſtrian Camp at Torre di Garofalo.

On the 29th paſt we were acquainted with the Declaration which the Republick of Genoa had made in Favour of the Houſe of Bourbon; whereupon M. de Schulemberg took the Precaution to augment the Guards, order'd M. Lomellino, the Genoeſe Governor of Novi, to be arreſted, and 48 of the Republick's Soldiers who were his Guard, to be diſarmed. The Country Militia on Duty at the Gates of the City were diſmiſſed; a Courier diſpatched to Vienna, and the General Count de Groſs to Turin, to inform theſe Courts with that Declaration; and M. Lomellino, on the Retreat of the Auſtrian Army, was ſet at Liberty.

On the 30th an Edict was publiſhed, ordering the Inhabitants of the City and its Diſtrict to deliver up their Fire-Arms. We removed the Corn Magazines that had been laid up there; and the Fiefs, Eſtates, Goods, &c. belonging to the Genoeſe Subjects, in the Dominions of the Queen of Hungary and the King of Sardinia, are confiſcated.

On the 1ſt Inſtant ſeveral Regiments of Horſe were order'd to the Right Wing of the Army, which extended as far as Franca Villa. The City of Novi was ſummoned to pay Contribution, to which they accordingly conſented.

On the 2d General de Groſs returned from Turin. The Army having conſumed all the Forage and Proviſions which had been gather'd in that Part of the Genoeſe State about Novi, Diſpoſitions were made for its decamping; to which Purpoſe, in the Afternoon, the Baggage was removed, and Orders ſent to the Detachments which were placed to guard the advanced Poſts, and obſerve the Motion of the Enemy, to withdraw: After which, the Enemy began to file off, by almoſt impracticable Roads and Paſſages, and attacked a Poſt guarded by a Captain of the Waraſdins, who defended it, and joined the Army; which, on the 3d, after having diſmiſſed M. Lomellino, decamped in good Order from the Neighbourhood of Novi, and encamped at Rivalta, without the leaſt Moleſtation or Loſs, agreeable to a Reſolution it had taken to act defenſively.

On the 4th the Army made an Halt, and on the 5th entred into this new Camp at Torre di Garofalo.

Journal of the Saxon Auxiliary Army in Bohemia, from the 15th to the 22d of July, N. S. dated from the Head Quarters at Johanniſberg near Konigingratz.

July 15. WE continue in our old Situation near Konigingratz, and the Pruſſian Army remains likewiſe in the ſame Camp on the other Side of the Adler, the King having his Quarters at Czernilow. A Body of his Cavalry is marched from Opotchna to Skalka, with a Deſign of joining that which is poſted near Aujeſt; and according to Accounts from thoſe Quarters, the King has detached another Body of the Army towards Opotchna, which ſeems to be going to Reichenau.

On the 16th, Advice was brought that a Party of Pruſſian Dragoons and Huſſars was come to Solnitz, with an Intent to take away the the Cattle and Forage, which occaſioned a Skirmiſh between them and the Auſtrian Huſſars, to the Advantage of the latter, who maintain'd their Poſt, and had but one Man killed. Several Pruſſian Soldiers, who had been forced into their Service in the Poliſh Territories, eſcaped in this Rencounter, and came the next Morning to our Head Quarters. The Force of the Pruſſian Parties poſted at Aujeſt, Skalka and Ruſzka, is reckoned at 12000 Men, all under the Command of Major General de Winterfeld.

Upon the 18th, the Duke received Advice from Lieutenant Colonel Deſoffi, who is with a Detachment of Huſſars on the other Side of the Elbe, that, having been informed of ſome Squadrons of Pruſſian Huſſars, who were roaming about the neighbouring Country to pillage and exact Contributions, he came up with them near Horcritz, where falling upon them, Lieutenant Colonel Schutz, who commanded them, was killed, and five other Officers, and 91 Huſſars made Priſoners, whereas he had but one of his Men killed and three Horſes, and five Men and four Horſes wounded. The Officers and the other Pruſſian Priſoners, to the ſame Number, arrived ſoon after at our Head Quarters, from whence they were removed to Prince Charles's, whither the King of Pruſſia ſent a Trumpet to enquire after the Condition of Lieutenant Colonel Schutz, who is one of the famous Partiſans of his Army.

Upon the 19th, the Pruſſian Body, detached to Solnitz, ſtill remained in the ſame Place, and the advanced Poſts continued to have frequent Skirmiſhes with the Auſtrians.

Word was brought from our Left, that the Pruſſians were throwing new Bridges over the Elbe, in the Neighbourhood of Schmirſchitz, and the Deſerters, which joined us this Day, declared, that there was a great Motion in their Camp, and that the Army was preparing to change its Situation.

As ſoon as Night came on we obſerved that they affected to double the Fires in their Camp; and ſeveral Signals, which they made by firing of Cannon, made us attentive to their Proceedings; and accordingly

On the 20th, We ſaw the Pruſſian Army wheel off to the Right to gain the oppoſite Bank of the Elbe. They paſſed this River on Bridges thrown over it near Lochanitz, a ſmall Village near the Town of Schmirſchitz, the Cavalry and Baggage having taken the Route of Horzinowes.

It ſeemed at firſt to be only a Part of the Pruſſian Army that had paſſed the River, and a Trumpet of the King of Pruſſia's Regiment of Foot, whom our Houlans took, declared the ſame Thing, and ſeveral Deſerters who came to our Head Quarters confirmed it, adding, that they believed that Part of the Army had taken another Route.

Thereupon a ſmall Party was ſent to reconnoitre the new Camp which the Pruſſians occupied, and according to their Reports, it is probable that it was the whole Army that had paſſed to the Right of the Elbe. Their Camp extends a Mile in Length, the Left Wing ſtretching towards Lochanitz, having the Village of Nedieleſtie in their Front, that of Chlum in their Rear, and their Right extending towards the Village of Dlauhdwory, fronting our Left Wing, and about two Leagues diſtant from us.

Prince Charles came to confer with the Duke of Saxe-Weiſſenfels. His Serene Highneſs alſo received a Viſit from the Duke d'Aremberg, who arrived Yeſterday Evening from Vienna, to take upon himſelf, as well as Prince Lobcowitz, a Part in the Command of the Auſtrian Army under the Orders of Prince Charles of Lorrain.

Upon the 21ſt the Pruſſians continued quiet in their Camp, where probably they will wait for the Corps commanded by Major General de Winterfeld, who, according to our Advices, quitted Opochna on the 20th, and advanced to Neuſtadt.

Upon the 22d the Pruſſian Army made a general Forage on their Right, to cover which the whole Cavalry formed a Poſtirung or Chain. Our Houlans harraſs'd them till Noon, when the Pruſſians retired to their Camp.
